Papasan Past, Papasan Present

If you were alive in the 1980s, there's a very good chance you spent some time sitting—and tipping over—in Pier 1 Imports' ubiquitous papasan chair. The good news is that, much like Cher and Madonna, the papasan never really left. So let's not call it a comeback. Let's just agree that she's had some work done, and she looks great. Bases from $50; cushions from $90/Pier 1 Imports.

DESIGNER LISA MOORE TALKS SUN HEALTH

LISA MOORE WAS MORE FOCUSED ON AGING THAN HEALTH when she and her business partner, Robyn Stevens, started their Cover Clothing line. "I had kids, and I was spending so much time outside. I started wondering, 'Why aren't there swim shirts for women?' Everything out there was for kids or men," she says. It was when her 23-year-old sister discovered a melanoma that she realized that her SPF line of swimwear and clothing could also save lives. Her sister has since recovered, and Cover Clothing continues to expand.

We asked Lisa for her best tips on keeping things covered and staying cool at this summer's pool parties.

•DO WEAR A HAT.

"I usually wear an SPF 49 sunscreen and keep my hat on in addition to a long-sleeve swimsuit or swim shirt."

•DO GET IN THE WATER.

"Our suits stay damp without getting drippy. If you get in the water from time to time, it's like having your own little inner air conditioning. You can sit out and talk to your friends on a 100-degree day."

•DO THROW YOUR SUIT IN THE WASH.

"Our suits are totally machine washable, and you can throw them in the dryer, too. I usually line dry them though. They're like a fleece—they're pretty dry even when they're fresh out of the washer."
