Our Designers Say...

| Gloster's "Havana Modular Lounge Chair"

My clients would love this woven Gloster piece. It's streamlined yet casual, and the all-weather wicker makes it maintenance-free. These would be perfect grouped around an outdoor fireplace.

—Jennifer Mehditash, Larchmont, New York

| "Suzy Wong Low Back Loveseat" from Janus et Cie

The Suzy Wong sofa feels modern and comfortable with its architectural lines and beautiful wickerwork. I could see this on a Colonial veranda with batik pillows strewn across it. For me, wicker will always be a classic choice—it's luxurious and comfortable.

—Martyn Lawrence Bullard, Los Angeles

| "Club Woven Slipper Chair" from Summer Classics

Woven resin has the relaxed feel of wicker furniture, but the benefit of a longer lifespan. We love the clean lines of this slipper chair, and yet the woven resin makes it feel right at home on a Hamptons screen porch or around the pool. Classic meets clean and comfortable.

—Austin Handler, Water Mill, New York

| "Sunset Outdoor Beach Hut Chair" from MacKenzie-Childs

I love this because of its unique take on a canopy chair. I would reupholster the cushions in "Hulai Batik" from China Seas to offset all the geometric lines, then set the piece in the corner of a lush secret garden. Wicker is a classic; its natural texture is a complement to any outdoor setting.

—Maggie Cruz, Miami

| "Denpasar Lounge Chair" by Richard Frinier for Century Furniture

These fun yet classic chairs could find themselves at home in a traditional setting or in a more mod interior. Why not mix these in with lots of white and crisp chintz for an updated Victorian vibe? If you're willing to have some fun, these chairs could make your summer living room.

—Louis Navarrete, New York

| RH's "Hampshire Lounge Chair"

This chair is reminiscent of the wicker furniture from our fisherman's cottage in Scotland. It is a timeless staple that can be used both indoors and out.

—Kathryn M. Ireland, West Hollywood
