BEYOND TOPIARY

Redefining Luxury in the Swiss Alps

The jewel of the Swiss hotel industry, The Alpina Gstaad has been receiving outstanding distinctions since its opening in December 2012. This five-star resort nestled in the Bernese Oberland region of the Swiss Alps features views that are absolutely breathtaking from nearly every point on the property. Idyllic in the summer months, and simply magical in the winter, The Alpina Gstaad's accommodations are unparalleled in luxury and beauty.

The winner of countless hotel design awards, this impressive property is just as ultra-chic as it is elegant. Visiting guests can enjoy sweeping balcony views while lounging in Quinta Teak / Woven Armchairs. Blending earthy tones and materials with quiet sophistication, the Quinta collection is right at home in this picturesque location. Designed and crafted to retain its beauty season after season, Quinta boasts extraordinary performance even during a winter in the Swiss Alps.
