BEYOND TOPIARY

Foundation of Style: Find the Right Rug

In the spirit of livable luxury, we've composed a stylish offering of resilient rugs engineered to endure and designed to elevate any environment with texture and pattern. From casual outdoor performance options to hand stitched hide elements for the interior, our selection provides versatility and creativity.

The Eclipse collection made from solution dyed polypropylene is incredibly durable while remaining remarkably comfortable underfoot. Available in eight different weaves, Eclipse brings natural hues to poolside patios, indoor-outdoor lobbies, or living rooms for active families. Weather-proof, easy to maintain, and designed to retain its beauty in high-traffic applications, this series is ideal for settings that need a touch of texture or a layered look with little maintenance.

Eclipse's latest additions Anacapa, Catalina, and Santa Rosa are inspired by islands just off the California coast and embody the relaxed elegance of beach living.

The handcrafted Hide collection of interior rugs includes eight luxurious options from the subdued, sophisticated Estambul to the lively Zebra. Created from 100% cowhide squares hand-stitched and made-to-order Hide rugs add soft composition, dimension and depth to any room whether dressed up for a formal dining area or dressed down in a casual bedroom.
