A Configuration Chameleon: Senja's Endless Combinations Let Your Imagination Lead

Characterized by generous proportions, luxurious finishes and inviting, plush cushions, the highly customizable Senja Collection by Tribù is designed to allow for maximum personalization of your lounge environment. This remarkably versatile modular lounge collection includes nearly one hundred pieces from sofas and poufs to chaise lounges and recliners allowing for infinite configuration possibilities.

Senja modules include nearly every imaginable variation, with options for everything from arm height to seat depth. Coordinating stand-alone pieces include adaptable poufs and optional side table attachments to add length and functionality to any arrangement. Frame are offered in a light, airy Linen or darker Wenge finish for more contrast, with tables available in enameled lava stone or premium teak.
