Channeling a distinctive mod glamour, Bottega Veneta's Multi-Sphere Knot brass clutch is ornamented with circles of sterling silver and yellow and rose gold that shimmer beneath thin layers of quartz crystal; $2,650. bottegabeneta.com, 800-845-6790

L'Objet's lustrous Han collection of Limoges-porcelain dinnerware recalls the glories of the ancient Chinese dynasty. Pictured here accented with hand-applied 24K gold, the line includes, from top, a Chinese spoon ($180), a soup bowl ($160), a bread plate ($90), a dessert plate ($125), and a dinner plate ($150). A pure-white version of the series is also available ($20-$320). l-objet.com, 855-562-5388

Made in Maine using traditional yacht-building techniques, this outdoor dining table—an Angela Adams design for Weatherend Estate Furniture—has a sporty modernist flair. The glass top rests on a mahogany base, shown here in a high-gloss white finish but available in an array of materials and colors; matching seating is also offered. Shown in the 120" l. x 42" w. x 29" h. model, the table can be ordered in multiple sizes; to the trade. weatherend.com, 800-456-6483

The saffron paisley embroidery of Yves Delorme's Sudare bath linens conjures a graceful, exotic spirit. The guest towel ($60) and hand towel ($90) are shown with a complementary Etoile bath sheet in fuchsia ($105); the Sudare bath towel sells for $125. Paola Navone's Strada collection for Janus et Cie epitomizes laid-back luxe. The extensive range of tables and seating is offered in four different shades of weather-resistant synthetic fiber, handwoven on powder-coated stainless-steel frames. Shown in Dapple, the dining armchair measures 31.5" h. x 26.5" w. x 24" d. and costs $1,050. janusetcie.com, 800-245-2687
