JANUS ET CIE AT MARKET WEEK

On October 5, JANUS et Cie hosted a special event in celebration of Boston Design Center's Market Week. More than 300 people came to hear Architectural Digest special projects editor Mitchell Owens present "On Display: The Secret to Artful Rooms." After, guests mingled at an elegant cocktail reception attended by Terry Clayton, senior vice president of sales for JANUS et Cie, and Julie Rogowski, general manager and VP of the Boston Design Center.

PALETTE PERFECT BY DORYA

Dorya®, the exquisite interiors brand, debuts a portfolio of 20 new statement colors that are palette perfect. "Influential designers continue to make strong commitments to color," explains Creative Director Megan Perry. "Adding fashion-forward color-finish options to our 30-year-old luxury brand will allow high-end designers to create their own unique signatures for their discerning clientele." Bold and vibrant turquoise, hot pink, raspberry, fume, rouge, bumblebee-yellow and softer hues such as new pearl, titanium, and dusk are just a few of the color-finish options. They are available for all bespoke furnishings and exclusive upholstery.

DESIGNERS TAKE FLIGHT

Visionary design powers the way we navigate through life. From our homes, offices, and community spaces to the roads and airways that connect us, design is the foundation of our experience. In this program presented by Delta, a handpicked group of modern designers share how their contributions have made our journey more efficient and more interesting.
