

ARCHITECTURAL DIGEST

THE INTERNATIONAL DESIGN AUTHORITY

MAY 2013

The Good Life

DAZZLING
HOMES
AROUND
THE WORLD

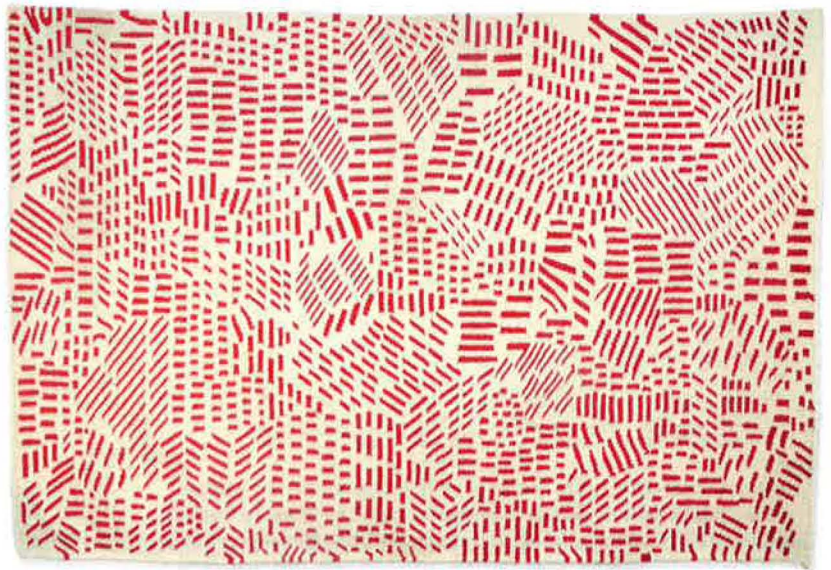

PLUS

Seaside Chic—the New Mediterranean
The Brilliance of Richard Meier

DISCOVERIES

With its vibrant printed-and-embroidered floral pattern, Manuel Canovas's Sara linen-blend fabric evokes a lush, tropical feel. Shown in rose indien (other colorways are available), it is offered to the trade at Cowtan & Tout. cowtan.com, 212-647-6900

Elson & Co.'s Hatch rug, designed by artist Sally King Benedict, uses repetition to mesmerizing effect. The New Zealand-wool rug comes in pink (shown) and green and can be ordered in custom colors and sizes; $42 per sq. ft. elsoncompany.com, 800-944-2858

The Objects of Curiosity collection from Restoration Hardware features an array of reimagined artifacts, including this Kisber Cavalry horse fragment, modeled after 19th-century equestrian carvings. Conceived by French reproduction artist Stéphane Davoy, the plaster sculpture is 11" tall and costs $130 (online and catalogue only). rh.com, 800-910-9836

A profusion of natural stone turns Kathryn McCoy Design's Torch table lamp into a shimmering accent piece. In addition to the clear quartz pictured here, the lamp comes in amethyst, citrine, pyrite, and other materials. With a clear-Lucite base, it stands 35" tall and is priced from $3,250, shade not included. kathrynmc-coydesign.com, 858-487-3600

Comfort and style meet in the Waive chaise longue, part of designer Paola Navone's Dolce Vita suite for Janus et Cie. The 74"-long seat comprises synthetic-wood planks and a powder-coated-aluminum frame, shown in bronze; $1,695. janusetcie.com, 800-245-2687