Bar Area

Landscape architect Sophie Greive of Think Outside Gardens transformed this alfresco area as part of a whole-garden upgrade. The paved area features travertine tiles laid in a diamond pattern with kidney weed (Dichondra repens) planted between the tiles. The layered planting in the corner includes a crepe myrtle underplanted with hydrangeas and low-level Japanese box. The wall is covered in climbing fig (Ficus pumila) and the pots are filled with red geraniums. Pots from Think Outside Gardens. Outdoor furniture from Janus et Cie.

ON BALANCE

By reconfiguring the space allocations in this Sydney garden, landscape architect Sophie Greive has delivered a layout with flow and a sense of proportion.
