

BOUTIQUE design

HOSPITALITY REINVENTED

OCTOBER | 2015

KNACK FOR THE KNICK

MICHAEL GABELLINI
GABELLINI SHEPPARD ASSOCIATES

15

16

17

18

19

15 CORBETT LIGHTING

corbettlighting.com

Lily's candelabra base illuminates handmade porcelain flowers made with translucent petals, which adorn a branch-like, handcrafted iron frame finished in silver leaf. The range includes entry and dining models, as well as a semi-flush mount and a petite wall sconce.

16 D'STYLE HOSPITALITY FURNISHINGS

dstyleinc.com

The Soma end table teams a polished stainless steel base with a walnut-on-walnut top. The piece can be customized with a powdercoated or wet-painted, hand-applied finish. Glass, Marstone, wood veneer or high-pressure laminate top options are also available.

17 CHELLA TEXTILES

chellatextiles.com

Neutra references both local and global design, channeling influences ranging from its namesake, California architect Richard Neutra, to the modernist buildings that serve as a backdrop to the Heimtextil trade fair in Frankfurt, Germany. The machine-washable, mildew- and stain-resistant fabric consists of 100 percent solution-dyed acrylic.

18 JANUS ET CIE

janusetcie.com

Sketch is an indoor/outdoor café chair collection defined by a symmetrical scroll design. Consisting of an armchair and side chair with polypropylene frames and seats, the stackable range is available in six hues: White, Russet (shown), Salvia, Finch, Sky and Ocre.

19 DURAVIT

duravit.us

Designer Christian Werner's geometric L-Cube furniture series consists of vanity units, consoles and tall cabinets with handle-free doors that incorporate tip-on, self-close technology. Available in more than 30 different surface options such as high gloss, apricot pearl, high gloss jade, high gloss white, dolomite gray and dark oak real wood.