Ten styles in a variety of color options—each named for a different aspect of Australia's natural landscape—comprise the Oceania collection of high-performance textiles. Featured here, left to right, are: Remarkable (in Cadet); Barossa (in Silverlake); Great Ocean Road (in Carbon); Fraser (in Cadet), and Overland (in Cadet). Suitable for indoor and outdoor use, patterns range from 30,000 to 90,000 double rubs on the Wyzenbeek scale.

15 S.HARRIS

The Art Nouveau-inspired Revival Contract collection's Q2 performance textiles are produced without the use of chemical additives. Woven with Hitex synthetic yarns to achieve a natural cotton look, these textiles are bleach-cleanable and colorfast. The range includes six patterns for a total of 20 skus.

16 BURCH

The Wanderlust collection of four new patterns (including Canteen, shown) is inspired by the allure of adventure and the beauty of natural landscapes. Made from polyester and upcycled cotton sourced from the apparel industry's textile waste, all have a Crypton finish making them suitable for heavy-duty use. Palettes focus on rich, saturated retro colors.
