HIGH POINT HIGHLIGHTS

CASUAL LOOKS CONTINUE TO BRANCH OUT

Whether toasting a new collection or celebrating a new or expanded showroom, here are a few of the sights recorded during the recent High Point Market.

Allen Calzadilla cuts the ribbon at Pelican Reef's larger showroom in Showplace. Mayra Tosco Jones, left, and Perry Catanese are assisting.

Euro Style principals Trig Liljestrand, Judith Ets-Hokin and Tom Loney conduct the ribbon-cutting at its expanded showroom in IHFC Commerce wing.

Gary Ecoff, president of BambrellaUSA, cuts the ribbon to open the bamboo-pole umbrella maker's new showroom in the Suites of Market Square.

Safavieh President Arash Yaraghi and designer Thom Filicia at a meet and greet in the company's High Point showroom. The event celebrated the launch of Filicia's new book, "American Beauty," and showcased his rug designs for Safavieh, which include outdoor rugs crafted of yarns from recycled plastic bottles.

JANUS et Cie Founder and President Janice Feldman snips the red ribbon, backed up by her staff in the high-end IHFC Main showroom.

Boca Rattan President Reza Daeinejad opens its showroom in IHFC Pavilions on Three.
