Marset: Pleat Box

marset.com
Reader Service No. 210

"What I liked about this fixture is the contrasting outer/inner finish. The outside looks like it could be suede, but the inside has a highly reflective surface. The digitally-designed crease gives this wonderfully simple fixture a slight twist."

Porcelanosa: Sea

Reader Service No. 211

"This takes wall tile to a whole new level. It appears seamless, while at the same time reflective and textural. It's an eye catcher even from a distance."

Sancal: Tea

sancal.com
Reader Service No. 212

"This sofa has a comfortable yet sleek design, with a single weighted form and a subtle texture quilted into the surface."

KnollTextiles: Jot Drapery

knolltextiles.com
Reader Service No. 213

"These draperies by Suzanne Tick add a touch of glamour and feel almost like chainmail."

DesignTex: WriteUp1

designtex.com
Reader Service No. 214

"I like its flexibility. It's a clear coating that provides a dry-erase surface, so you can paint over any color and on unexpected locations like doors or tabletops. This is something you can really have fun with."

Delta: Fold

deitafurniture.com
Reader Service No. 215

"Delta always exemplifies a great level of craftsmanship, and I found Fold both graceful and timeless. The clean, rectilinear silhouette is accentuated by its wainut veneer with a hand-forged metal frame."

Viveca Bissonnette, FIIDA

Vice President, Design Principal
Hollander Design Group
San Diego

JANUS et Cie: Boxwood Modular Collection

janusetcie.com
Reader Service No. 216

"The ultimate in luxury outdoor living. The integration of traditional seating and chaise lounge is beautifully executed. It makes me want to curl up in it."

Vibia: Fold by Arik Levy

"Finally, a wall sconce that rivals art."

Edelman Leather: Leather and Lace Collection
