HEN UNIVERSITY PARK RESIDENTS TARA AND BLAKE BOZMAN

were looking for a lake property, Tara—who grew up in Northern California—was particularly taken by Possum Kingdom. Located 140 miles west of Dallas, the sprawling lake is surrounded by rocky cliffs and scenic topography, which reminded Tara of her beloved home state. In 2006, the couple purchased a lot overlooking the water in the lake's gated community The Ranch—and promptly learned they were pregnant with their third child, putting their plans on hold for a few years.

By 2009, they were ready to break ground. Blake interviewed builders in Dallas and Fort Worth but ultimately selected Dan Offield of Graford-based Clearview Construction, who was instrumental in the development of the neighboring Harbor community. The Bozmans tasked Dan with creating a calming sanctuary that would let the natural beauty of the lake take center stage. Priority one was an outdoor living and entertaining area, this page: (clockwise, from top) Cabana bath was designed using Ann Sacks glass penny and brick tile and a Caesarstone countertop in Organic White. The mirror and iron sconces were custom. Seat cushion and pillow fabrics used for seats and pillow are by Link Outdoor, sourced through George Cameron Nash. The covered dining area is outfitted with bar stools and benches by Juan Gonzalez of Neovations. The concrete table is from Sarché Concrete Design. Lounge chairs and woven tables from Janus et Cie surround the pool.
