SUNSET VISIONS

There Really Is A Place Of Intense Beauty And Serenity Where
The Sun Meets The Water's Edge — And That Place Is Found
Nestled Here On Lake Maitland In Winter Park

CHOOSING A YEAR-ROUND RESIDENCE IN ONE OF FLORIDA'S most breathtaking locations means the sky is the limit. Known for the area's high-grade elevation, a select few of the homes here on Lake Maitland in Winter Park, Fla., sit 20 feet above the lake and are mesmerizing enough to draw in drive-by spectators who just want to catch a glimpse of its splendor. Seduced by the lake's intoxicating sunset views, homeowners Gavin and Annette Ford comfortably settled into this dynamic 15,600-square-foot home complete with private guest quarters, a full-scale cabana and tennis court, sauna and a deliciously decadent swimming pool — well almost. It didn't quite start off that way with
