SPLENDOR AT SEA

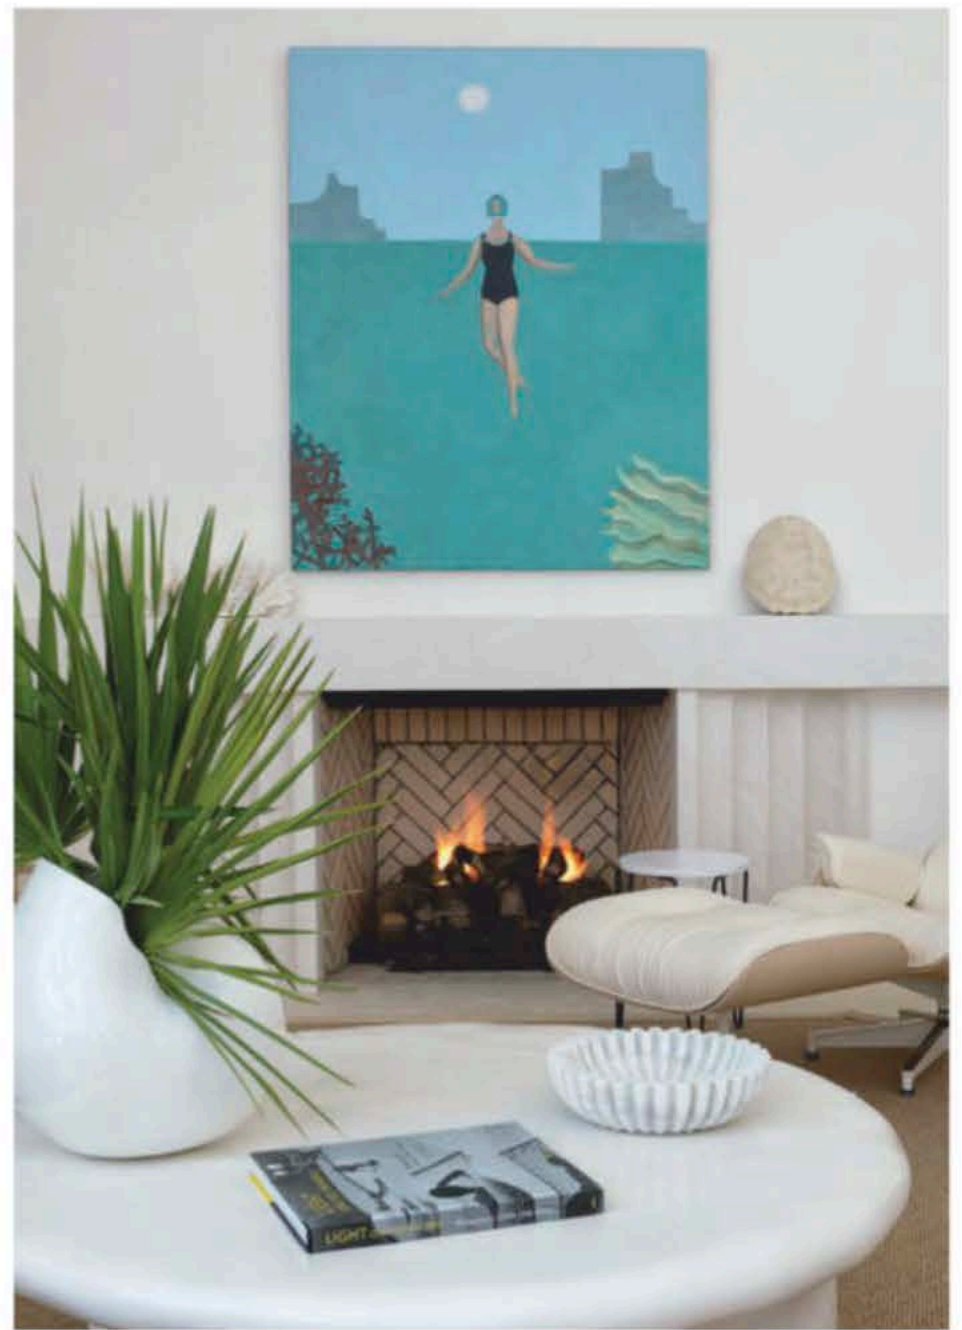

Naples Entrepreneur Shahid Khan's
$360 Million Superyacht

ABOVE: All the curved living room furnishings were selected to echo the outdoor installation titled Turtle Bale Green by Page | Duke Landscape Architects and artist Dan Dutton seen from the windows. The sculptures represent newly hatched turtles making their way to the sea.

RIGHT: An elliptical wooden table introduces curves in the dining room. Wicker chairs and a chandelier featuring a tangle of candles add whimsy. The mirror is a vintage find, designed in the 1950s by Gio Ponti.

LEFT: A bold red artwork from Super Simple brings a welcome jolt of color to a guest bedroom. "When I saw it, I knew it needed to be in our home," says Sandra. "It reminds me of the vivid sunsets seen from our rooftop terrace."

Vintage Moroccan brass trays bring texture to the outdoor dining alcove. The curtains around the dining area soften the afternoon sun, but they're mostly there to provide ambiance. Poolside wicker furniture from JANUS et Cie next to the splash pool adds to the boutique resort feel of the area.
