BURNING DESIRE

From: Paloform

Price: £2,805-£3,060 to trade

Miso is one of Paloform's range of outdoor fire pits. Its shallow form has a contemporary feel and comes in one of six light to dark grey and taupe colours. Made of hand-cast concrete, Miso is weather resistant and available in natural gas or propane versions and two burner styles: a manually lit version with standing pilot and safety thermocouple, or an electronic ignition model that may be controlled with a wall switch or wireless remote. All come in a choice of topping medium, such as river rock, lava rock, crushed or pebble glass. Hard tops are also available to turn the fire pit into an outdoor coffee table when not in use. Dimensions: D 914 cm x H 305 cm)

HEAVEN'S KITCHEN

From: WWO0

Price: From £2,964-£10,500, excluding delivery and installation

Garden designers Simon and Ben Hawkins are the new nationwide suppliers for Dutch outdoor kitchens by WWO0. Popular across Europe and the US for many years, the system is now available in the UK for the first time. Made from concrete, wood and steel, the hardwearing outdoor kitchen can withstand constant use, varied temperatures and weather conditions all year round. The kitchens can be customised and bought by component, with extra options including a pizza oven, Big Green Egg BBQ, integrated steel fireplace, stainless steel sink, canopy and bar stools.
