Gina Collection for JANUS et Cie

Piero Lissoni | GINA

When I first approached Piero Lissoni with the idea of designing a collection for JANUS et Cie, I knew it was because I long admired his refined taste and personal style. Piero's linear compositions reminded me of how Maestro Giulini held his baton when conducting an orchestra—long arms and pianissimo fingers extending to his fantastic rhythm, transported in air. I knew the collection would need to be both rich and organic, neutral in surface and color with a spin of eclectic. The materials and touch had to be elegant. I wanted to present our first Lissoni collection to be understood and enjoyed both outdoors and in.

Together, we embarked on a wonderful journey of design—which took patience and time—to first conceive both form and function. Ever changing and evolving, resolving, dreaming... we explored, tested and developed many unique options.

Only after defining the ingredients could we begin to knit the magic of building complex components, forms and crafting-obsessed details into reality.

Investing in extraordinary fabrication techniques and finishes, we have created what will long be regarded as an illustrious family of sensual, sophisticated, and handcrafted elements.

I am so pleased to have collaborated with Piero and his Milano team together with the JANUS et Cie Singapore design studio.

Creatively yours,

Introducing our newest collection, GINA.

Piero Lissoni

Renowned architect, designer and art director Piero Lissoni is one of the most revered icons in the realm of contemporary Italian furniture. His signature minimalist style—clearly rooted in purism; however, defined by a sophisticated human component—can be found in the most esteemed public and private spaces worldwide.

In 1986, Lissoni and Nicoletta Canesi founded the interdisciplinary design and architecture studio Lissoni Associati in Milan. Lissoni and his multinational team thus comprehensively cover the areas of architecture, interior and product design, art direction, corporate identity and graphics. Projects extend globally to include private villas, residential buildings, offices, factories, theatres, restaurants and hotels, yachts, retail stores, showrooms, exhibitions, furniture and lighting design.

His architecture and design work is recognized worldwide and has earned him a series of international awards, including the Good Design Award, the Red Dot Award and the Compasso d'Oro ADI. Piero Lissoni is guest lecturer and member of the Advisory Board at the Politecnico di Milano. Recently completed architectural projects include a boutique hotel on the shores of Orta Lake, the Roomers Hotel Baden-Baden with its 130 rooms and spa in Germany (2016), the Conservatorium Hotel in Amsterdam (2012), the Mamilla Hotel in Jerusalem (2009), the renovation of the historic Teatro Nazionale in Milan (2009), the headquarters and production facilities of Kerakoll Design Lab (2014), Matteograssi (2011), Glas Italia (2010) and Living Divani (2007) in Italy.

GINA

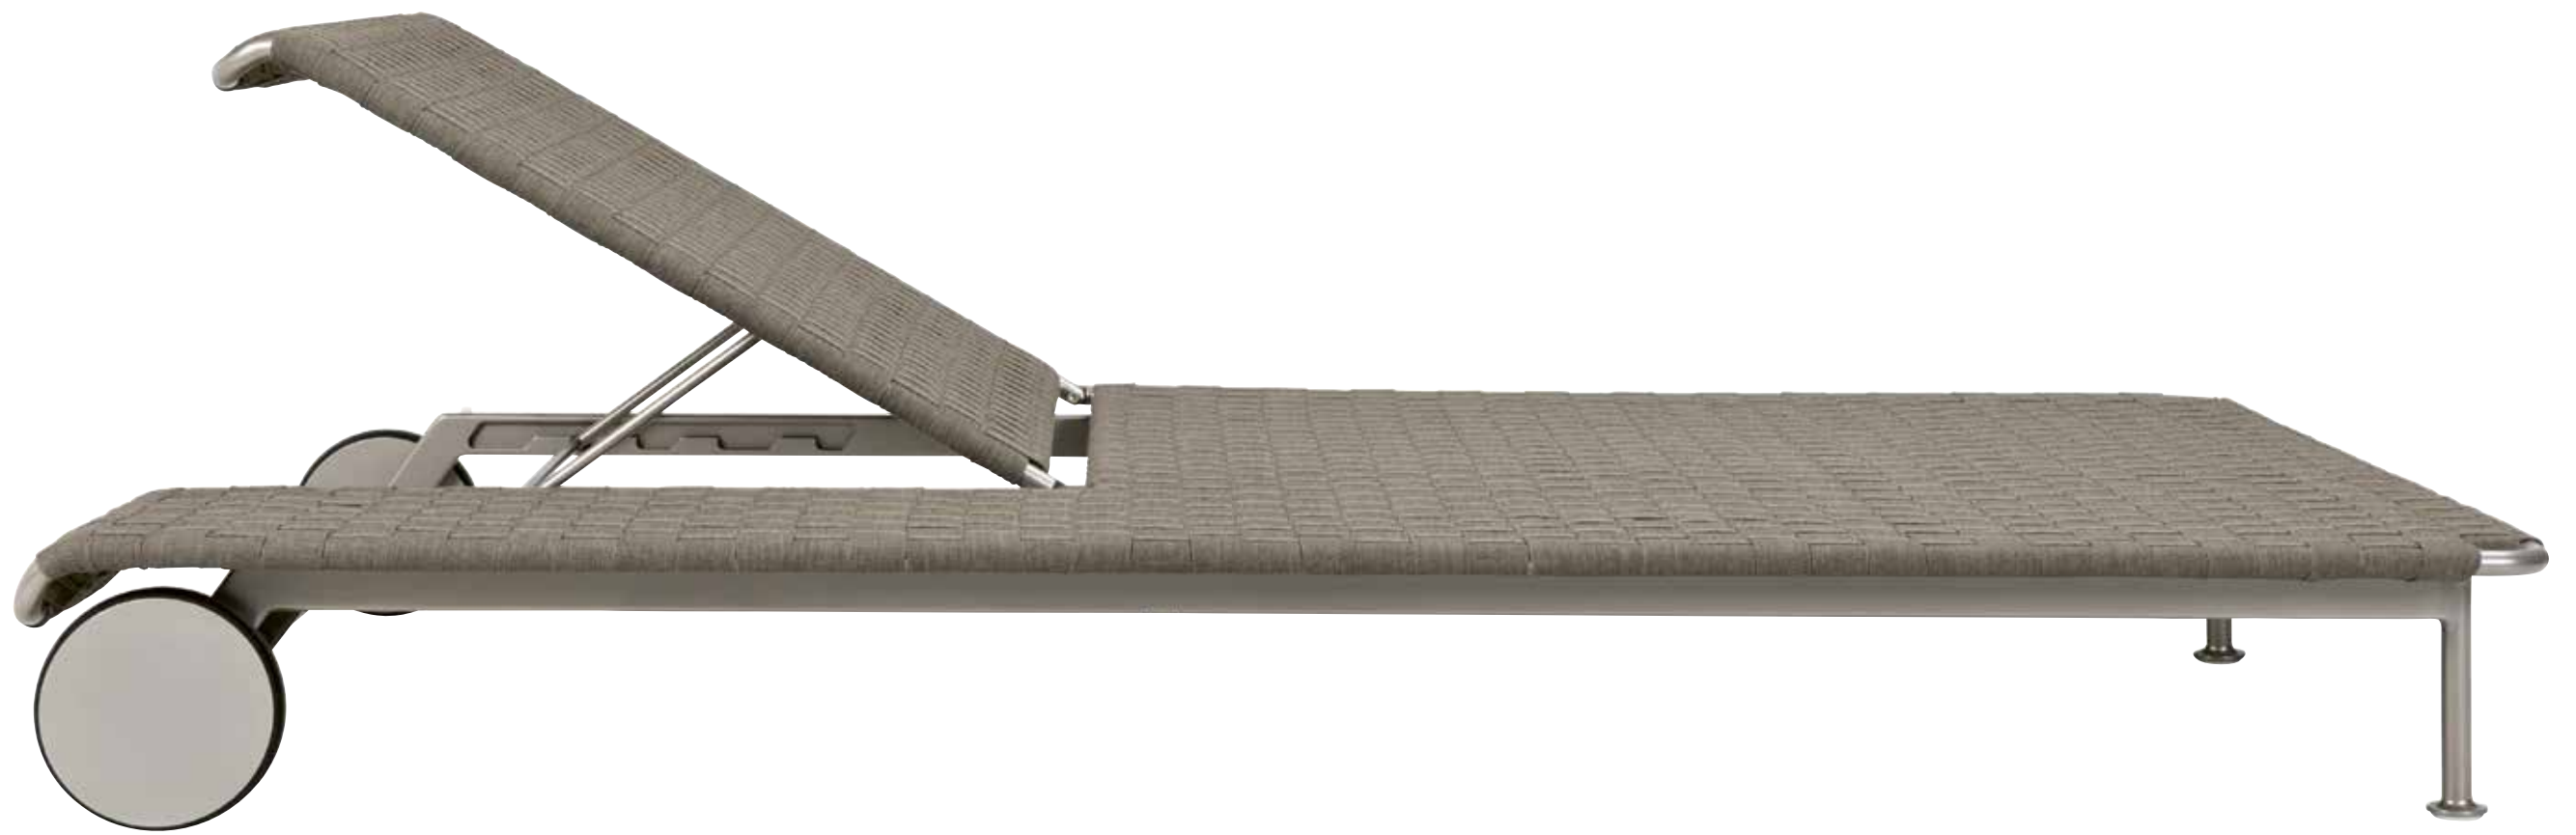

Inspired by the timeless allure of captivating beauty and polished opulence, the sensational GINA collection embodies iconic Italian glamour. This complete ensemble of sophisticated dining and lounge elements is characterized by sensuous contours and sleek lines, precisely executed in harmonious proportion across a refined palette of soft neutrals. Its thoughtfully designed system of modular pieces pairs seamlessly with lounge chairs flawlessly scaled in three graceful silhouettes for the most luxurious contemporary and traditional lounge environments. Each impeccably engineered, solid aluminum frame supports a masterfully woven seat, which is as durable as it is remarkably soft to the touch. The GINA teak-top cocktail tables in a chic Driftwood finish can be easily adapted for use as ottomans, bringing modern simplicity to the polished fluidity of the seating elements. The collection's glamorous chaise lounge is brilliantly designed with an integrated surface for a poolside martini or favorite novel. Exquisitely crafted side chairs and armchairs complement an array of teak dining tables perfectly sized for distinctive communal spaces.

“I HAVE BEEN WANTING TO EXPLORE IN A COMPREHENSIVE WAY
