

HOME&DESIGN'S

CHESAPEAKE VIEWS

Luxury Living on the Bay

great escapes

THREE ONE-OF-A-KIND
HOMES CELEBRATE
WATERFRONT LIFE

1

2

1. CLEAN LINES RH's textural Vetro Planter marries weather-resistant resin, fiberglass and crushed stone in six sizes and two finishes: Dark Grey (pictured) or the lighter Chenza. rh.com

2. DESIGN MUSE Handcrafted from aerated cement, Jonathan Adler's graceful Dora Maar Planter is part of the Muse Collection. It depicts human features in surreal style. jonathanadler.com

3. HIGH STYLE Measuring 38 inches tall, JANUS et Cie's Hydría Extra Large vessel is made of a composite material lighter and more durable than cast concrete. Pictured in Aged Bronze. janusetcie.com

4. COLOR CUE The vibrant hues of ancient ceramic tiles inspired Frontgate's Amara Painted Urn. Created with fade-resistant paint on lightweight resin and fiberglass in a range of sizes and shapes. frontgate.com

5. MID-CENTURY VIBE Room & Board's Case Study Ceramics planter combines a weatherproof teak base with a matte, glazed-ceramic pot in charcoal or white. roomandboard.com

6. CHIC WEAVE Eco-friendly, hand-woven mesh characterizes Dedon's Dala Planter. Each comes with a removable inner planter; powder-coated finishes include Stone and Grass. dedon.de —J.S.

POT LUCK

Pretty planters conjure al fresco style

3

4

5

6