hospitality design

june 2017 hospitalitydesign.com

hd awards

wave of the future 2017

HDexpo
a hospitality design event

the st. regis maldives vommuli resort

Vommuli Island, Maldives

Photography by RAF TOOTEN

1. Organic architecture flows throughout the resort, especially in the Whale Bar, where curved openings perfectly frame the water views.

2. Overwater villas feature floor-to-ceiling windows that open up to a private deck that leads down to the lagoon.

Owner and Purchaser Residency Resorts Malé Private Limited Management Company Marriott International Landscape, Architecture, and Interior Design Firm WOW Architects | Warner Wong Design, Singapore Architecture Project Team Wong Chiu Man, Raymond Ho, Cheong Wen Hui, and Noemi Escano Interior Design Project Team Wong Chiu Man, Stephen Siew Meng Hui, Noemi Escano, Atsuko Kato, and Diana Acio Contractors Amin Constructions, Bomeo Benar, JL Resources, and Can.I Interior Fit-Out Engineering Water Solutions Private Limited, Webstructures, and Yonsan Engineering Lighting Light Cibles

→ winner

Informed by the Japanese words for form (kata) and magic (chi), JANUS et Cie's Katachi high back lounge chair is held together by an aluminum frame with a proprietary JANUScoat finish. The chair features four new JANUSfiber hues (agave, dolomite, pewter, and tungsten) woven in a herringbone pattern.
JANUSETCIE.COM

→ finalist

Royal Botania's Palma is an automatic umbrella that boasts mechanics contained within the contours of design. The base includes a quick-release mechanism, while the aluminum shaft encloses a gas strut for ease of operation.
ROYALBOTANIA.COM

→ finalist

For Sailor, Tidelli partnered with Luciano Mandelli to create a handwoven outdoor chair in nautical rope that resembles a sailor's net. The chair is made of weather-resistant material and high-grade welded aluminum, and available in 52 colors.
TIDELLI.COM

→ finalist

Including a sofa, lounge chair, bar chair, and dining set, Pavilion Furniture's Casablanca collection recaptures the aesthetic of the early 1940s. The range of outdoor pieces is available in a variety of fabrics and in two rare metallic finishes, including high-gloss rhodium silver and high-gloss palladium gold.
PAVILION-FURNITURE.COM