

hospitality design

march/april 2019 hospitalitydesign.com

dive in
the wellness issue

HDexpo hospitality design event

products outdoor furniture

Form and function merge in these clean-lined offerings

By Matt Dougherty

1

2

3

4

1

Crafted with strong, lightweight aluminum with a smooth, powdercoated finish Brown Jordan's Still collection is characterized by its softened edges and angles. The series includes a sofa, coffee table, and sectional. BROWNJORDAN.COM

2

Inspired by the 1950s, Ludovica Serafini and Roberto Palomba's Liz collection for Expormim boasts an armchair, sofa, and XL sofa, where elastic fabric—offered in six colorways—stretches over the metallic tubular structure. EXPORMIM.COM

3

JANUS et Cie's Bon Vivant range of playful poufs can be paired with standalone seating or a table. Available in three finishes, the foam body allows for maximum water drainage and air circulation. JANUSETCIE.COM

4

The architectural Paloma collection, conceived by Spanish designer Mario Ruiz for RH Contract, is bold in scale and angular in form. Its broad beveled planes and crisp lines form a geometric composition in durable, rust-proof aluminum. RESTORATIONHARDWARE.COM