DRAWN TO NATURE

2

1. The hues and fluid lines in the Caspian collection call to mind the connection to nature highlighted in its colorways, such as Ocean Haze, Evening Tide, and Tuscan Sun, by Brentano Fabrics, brentanofabrics.com

2. Karim Rashid's Heartbeat sofa for Nienkämper takes on a biomorphic form that mimics the ebb and flow of blood moving freely in the body, nienkamper.com

3. Human Connections, a carpet collection designed by David Oakey Designs exclusively for Interface, takes a cue from natural elements, calling to mind moss between stone pavers, interface.com

4. Rios Clementi Hale Studios designed their Rio bench for Janus et Cie as a tribute to the curves and contours of a flowing river, janusetcie.com

5. Metamorphic wall covering evokes the layered patterns found in the strata of sedimentary rock, by Anthology, through Style Library, stylelibrary.com

6. The complex linear patterning in Interface's Drawn Lines LVT tile, designed by Kari Pei, reflects the fractal geometries found in nature, interface.com

7. Naava's One Slim brings nature into any space with an air-purifying living green wall, through Teknion, teknion.com

8. Reindeer moss wall panels absorb sound while adding textures found in nature to a space, by Nordgröna, through Scandinavian Spaces, scandinavianspaces.com
