

S I N G A P O R E T A T L E R

HOMES

THE INSIDER'S GUIDE TO LUXURIOUS LIVING

THE MODERN CLASSIC

Abodes fusing old world charm with contemporary furnishing

FEATURES: CAROLINA HERRERA'S SPACE • POST-MILAN STYLE REPORT • FUTURISTIC KITCHEN PICKS

STYLE REPORT

Burnt Orange

Varying shades of orange have always been warmly received by homeowners, ranging from the tanned leather hue popularised by the house of Hermès, to colour specialist Pantone's Tangerine Tango, which garnered the Colour of the Year Award in 2012. Not surprisingly, the orange tone is back in trend this season under a new shade – burnt sienna.

A dark and sombre shade of orange that strikes a delicate balance between umber and rouge, burnt sienna calls to mind autumnal colours and a warm, cosy atmosphere. Here are a few styles embracing this unique colour.

- 1 Amalfi chaise lounge from Janus et Cie
- 2 Odeon lamp by Fontana Arte
- 3 Pion low stool by Sancal
- 4 Fendi Casa's Freedom sofa
- 5 Home accessories from Hermès
- 6 Ercol's Chairmakers chair

