THE CHILLAX EXPERIENCE

When it comes to shopping, there's nothing like having all that you need in one space. At Chillax Market, Singapore's first permanent indoor lifestyle market, you'll find more than 20 vendors. If you're a fan of home accessories and independent cult labels, then make a trip to The Grandstand at Bukit Timah. And when you need to rest from wandering around the 7,000 sq ft space, take a coffee break at The Eclectic Café. Operated by Modern Eclectic Living, there's plenty of coffee options to enjoy while you take in the collection of artworks in the café.

DESIGN STOP

Headquartered in Los Angeles, California, Janus et Cie is renowned for its indoor and outdoor furniture. It is supported by a 175,000 sq ft production facility. The brand's sales offices are also located in cities like London, Hong Kong and Sao Paulo. The brand has opened its flagship showroom, a 2,700 sq ft airy space wrapped around with floor-to-ceiling windows. You'll love the wide selection, which includes award-winning collections such as Amari, Fibonacci and Quinta.

KITCHEN SHOWCASE

For fans of V-Zug, the Swiss market leader for household appliances, the brand is loved for its reliability and quality. The V-Zug Gallery at Kitchen Culture recently went through a revamp to pander to consumers' needs. Within its sleek, contemporary space, there are a live kitchen and the brand's latest range of appliances so that you can have a feel of the make. You'll find essential kitchen equipment in addition to the array of innovative ovens.

SHOPPER'S PARADISE

Following the launch of its first store in 2013, Dreamweave & Other Stories opens its follow-up store at the revamped Shaw Centre. In addition to furniture and homeware, there are also plenty of fashion finds within its 880 sq ft interior. These include leather bags from Caterina Lucchi and Campomaggi. The store design is inspired by the work of Italian photographer Massimo Listri, who's famous for his stunning interior photographs. Listri's prints are on showcase in the store.
