Clockwise from above: An expansive covered terrace with sweeping arches houses an outdoor kitchen, dining area, and cozy fireplace. Dining furniture from Palecek features a light teak finish complementing the overall blue theme. Plush seating provides an inviting spot for chilly evenings in front of the outdoor fireplace. A vibrant painting over the mantel exemplifies the owners' passion for art.

room boasts two compelling pieces from their collection—an enchanting landscape by Andy Braitman sits above the fireplace, and an abstract by Suzanne T.S. presides over the deep blue velvet Hickory Chair sofa. “I enjoy creating spaces that provide a unique experience from room to room, and art always dictates that direction,” says Campbell. “I also wanted to add an element of whimsy to the project, and having accessories that don’t take themselves too seriously helped create that youthful attitude.”

The bright white kitchen accented in light blue offers a cheerful space for the family to enjoy their morning coffee and breakfast routine. Tucked just beyond the kitchen, a lovely scullery features yet another reflective custom touch with cabinets dressed in antique mirrored panels. Another favorite family spot is the kids’ recreation room, where Campbell positioned a large sectional around a colorful storage ottoman for extra blankets and games. “Add a periwinkle-blue bar packed with their favorite beverages and snacks, and you have a happy place for all.” He laughs.

For the spacious primary suite, Campbell juxtaposed a Hickory Chair French-style bed wrapped in luxurious linens with lacquered bedside chests paired with dazzling gold hardware. “I wanted to keep this room from having anything close to an expected tone,” he notes. A black-framed painting by J Louis hovers over the fireplace and creates a bold focal point.

Above: A serene guest suite located on the main level allows visitors to enjoy a private oasis with its own access to the outdoor living area. Opposite: The luxurious primary bedroom houses one of the owners’ prized art pieces by J Louis. Dark lacquered bedside chests counterbalance the room’s soft blue and neutral palette. A pair of tufted ottomans enhance an elegant French-style bed from Hickory Chair. Clad in marble and dappled with natural light, the primary bath features a luxurious soaking tub and walk-in shower. The room’s matching his-and-hers vanities add to the spa-like ambience.

Outside, the covered terrace is by far one of Campbell’s favorite places on the property. Its graceful white arches and inviting fireplace generate a warm, welcoming vibe for alfresco entertaining. Here, he selected light teak pieces from Palecek accented with blue cushions and paired them with comfy deep blue upholstered outdoor seating. Janus et Cie lounge chairs and chaises surround the tranquil blue water of the pool that mirrors the soothing furniture palette. “The journey working with these fantastic clients was so fun and fulfilling,” sums up the designer. “They were excited and involved at every turn, but clearly, the passion for creating a relaxing home to share with friends and family was our utmost goal.”
