Picking out poolside furniture no longer means watering down your style. This season's deck pieces are showing up in streamlined styles to posh out your patio, with modish backyard stunners subtly mixing sleek elements and bohemian accents. Keep it sophisticated with the new museum-quality Mateo line by renowned 1966 Outdoor Collection designer Richard Schultz (sure to be another classic). Or indulge your eclectic ardor for pattern and vibrancy with Trina Turk's new indoor/outdoor fabric collection. And while you're at it, snag an Artisan Fire Pizza Oven for al fresco dining. When it comes to upscale pool wares, no one can deny the allure of the great outdoors. A
