

MAY-JUNE 2014

VERANDA

Summer Bliss

SPECIAL SECTION:
OUTDOOR LIVING

BRINGING BEAUTY

Home

the world of...

OUTDOOR TABLES

OUR COMPREHENSIVE SHOPPING GUIDE INCLUDES SOMETHING FOR EVERY INCLINATION, FROM TEAK TO WICKER TO FAUX-BOIS.

to truly enjoy an outdoor space, you need a destination—a pleasant perch from which to savor a morning cup of coffee, an evening glass of wine, or an open-air dinner with family and friends. Cue the outdoor table. As a staple for the garden, porch, or patio, it sets a tone of graciousness and equips you well for a season in the sun. We've gathered together a diverse selection to suit a variety of tastes and styles, so there's something for every mood. Just don't forget the sunscreen.

WRITTEN BY
MARIO LÓPEZ-CORDERO
PRODUCED BY
ELLIE SOMERVILLE McNEVIN

In a Florida garden furnished by Suzanne Rheinstein, an antique marble table is a stylish focal point. OPENING PAGE: John Saladino uses a Chinese gristmill stone as a tabletop in Montecito, California.

SIKA DESIGN
A bistro classic. Danielle; $725, through Grange, 800-472-6431.

MICHAEL TAYLOR DESIGNS
Curvaceous and substantial. French Limestone; to the trade, 415-558-9940.

SUMMIT FURNITURE
Teak with a sharp profile. Round Petal; to the trade, 831-375-7811.

SUTHERLAND
A traditional shape moves outdoors. Versailles; to the trade, 800-717-8325.

JANUS ET CIE
A dose of modern architecture. Whisk; $3,291, 800-245-2687.

SUMMER CLASSICS
Tough resin wicker in a timeless silhouette. Classic Wicker; $1,749, 205-987-3100.