DESIGN ADAC

This April, VERANDA returned to its hometown of Atlanta to partner with the Atlanta Decorative Arts Center for DESIGN ADAC, a three-day event showcasing a captivating roster of speakers and collections for design enthusiasts and professionals to enjoy. VERANDA editors Steele Marcoux and Ellen McGauley hosted engaging conversations with the design industry's most influential personalities, including Meg Braff, Doug Hoerr, Markham Roberts, Ashley Whittaker, and Bunny Williams. The festivities concluded with a celebration honoring the Southeast Designers & Architect of the Year. Special thanks to our partners: Fabricut, Grizzel & Mann, JANUS et Cie, Jim Thompson, Kerry Joyce, LEE Industries, Sutherland Perennials Studio, and UpCountry Home.

Interior Designer Meg Braff, Landscape Architect Doug Hoerr, VERANDA Editor-in-Chief Steele Marcoux, and Architect Stan Dixon.

Ted Chappell, Tyler Lucking, Jessie Holmes, Etienne Faria, Lauren Davos, Robert Hartnett, and Karen Price of Sutherland Perennials Studio.

Interior Designer Matthew Carter receives a signed copy of Interior Designer Bunny Williams' latest book, Love Affairs with Houses.

Interior Designer Peter Dunham, VERANDA Deputy Editor Ellen McGauley, ADAC General Manager Katie Miner, and Interior Designer Jessica Schuster.

Interior Designer Kerry Joyce signs copies of his new book, Kerry Joyce: The Intangible at the Grizzel & Mann showroom.

FLYING COLORS

Swell summer lounging ahead: Luxury textile designers are elevating classic maritime looks to brilliant new heights with outdoor solids and prints fit for land and sea.

STACKING THE DECK

Resistant to UV, fading, mold, and mildew, Sunbrella's marine-grade fabrics are "woven with very tight weaves and finished to ensure water repellency," says Tracy Greene, Glen Raven/Sunbrella design director.

Islands in the Sun

Quite the harbor scene: Some of the world's most stylish ports of call inspire sophisticated new schemes for terraces and patios.

PURE BALI

Channeling the far-flung Indonesian paradise calls for simplicity of both material and mindset, with airy, open basket weaves, exotic batiks, and ultra-organic palettes.
